

ABOUT MY DREAM

As like others, I also dreamt in my school days of becoming Doctor. But due to lot of hurdles, I wasn't able to achieve it. Then pursued engineering without any hope or clear path of career. Later the path showed the way to aspire for MBA. Finally pursuing management studies which is delving me into the new life experience & knowledge gaining. Now my current dream is to become a financially independent person which should make me consistent throughout my life, the at most desire is to take care of my entire family. This would be my most admiring dream which I wish ever to get such kind of happiness in my life. Also, after some years, I want try out & implement my entrepreneurial knowledge in my life by starting a new venture or business may be if possible. All of the most important, I want to lead a peaceful & happy life, because this world is full of stressful surroundings & causing huge troubles due to stress. So, I consider this as an important factor in my future life.
